The StirCrazies Rise Against

The StirCrazies crash onto the music scene from Southern California to bring punk-laced reggae to your ears. Influenced by bands such as Sublime, Slightly Stoopid, Pepper, and the Red Hot Chili Peppers, their new debut album “Rise Against” delivers 11 hard-hitting tracks. Featuring the guest appearance trumpet of “C-Money” (current member of Slightly Stoopid and formerly of John Brown’s Body), to add to the intoxicating blend of grooves and catchy melodies. Recorded at the Sushi Fish Studio (San Diego) in 2012, the sonic quality will surely get listeners hooked.

Established in 2007, the band is stage tested and experienced to deliver high-energy performances that captivate the audience. The trio can play to any situation, with the ability to deliver live and acoustic sets ranging from 30 minutes to 2 hours. The band has appeared at venues throughout Southern California, including: Viper Room (Hollywood), Winston’s (OB), 710 Beach Club (PB), Brick By Brick (San Diego), Cheer’s (Vacaville), Frog n’ Peach (San Luis Obispo), and will be playing the 2013 Unity Festival in Russian River Valley.

In support of the new album, the band has released the music video “Relentless Love,” in partnership with Kristy Rose Productions. Additionally, the band has secured distribution virally and in Japan, and is scheduled to make radio and online appearances throughout the coming months. The StirCrazies are excited for the opportunity to serve your live performance needs, licensing inquiries for Film/TV audio, distribution, or any other questions you may have.

*“Enjoying Rise Against.
It is the real deal.
The most recent listen
is better than the previous.
That is the formulat that proves
it can pass the test of time.”
